

THANK YOU!

OUR MISSION

To improve the lives of economically vulnerable women and girls in greater Mercer County through community investment, education and collaboration.

OUR 20TH YEAR OF GRANTMAKING!!!

At our Annual Grantmaking Dinner, the Fund for Women and Girls awarded $187,000 in grants to 14 area nonprofits, the largest in the Fund's 20 year history. We were able to make this investment thanks to the generous support from a record number of voting members and other donors over the past membership year.

GRANTEE PARTNERS

2018 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Fund for Women and Girls continued connecting our members with the issues affecting women and girls in our community.

- Cocktails & Conversation: New Jersey's Maternal Mortality Crisis led by Robyn D'Oria MA, RNC, APN - Chief Executive Officer of Central Jersey Family Health Consortium.
- 40 members, donors and friends attended.
- Attendees contributed new children's clothing and books in English and Spanish for 2017 grantee partner Princeton Nursery School.
- Annual Luncheon "Thriving Women, Thriving Communities: Getting it Right from the Start – Ages Zero to Five".
- Moderator Cecilia Zalkind, President and CEO of Advocates for Children of NJ led a panel discussion on how we can work effectively together to improve the life outcomes for at risk children. Panelists: James Burke, President of the Burke Foundation; June Gray, Director of Family Support Interventions at Children's Futures; and Armstead Johnson, Executive Director of Mercer Street Friends.
- 170 members, donors, friends and non-profit representatives attended.
- Day of Service at 2017 grantee partner Princeton Nursery School.
- FWG members worked in their garden and playground; planting, cleaning and building plastic picnic benches.
- Celebrating 20 Years of the Fund for Women and Girls and over $1 million invested in our grantee partners since 1997!
- Welcomed back many of our founding members, along with current members and friends.
- Grantmaking Dinner attendees contributed bags of travel-size personal care items for 2017 grantee partner HomeFront's family campus residents.
