

LOCAL FOCUS
BROAD IMPACT

DEAR FRIENDS,

As the Princeton Area Community Foundation’s incoming leadership, we are grateful for your enthusiasm and support for the organization as well as for us personally. It is an honor to be associated with such a strong organization, and we are aware that we stand on the shoulders of all the generous donors and volunteers who have made the Community Foundation what it is today.

As we approach the Foundation’s 25th year, our first priority—along with getting to know all of you—is to develop a strategic plan that ensures our continued growth and increased impact. Specifically, we are focused on optimizing our grantmaking, providing deeper support and education for donors and nonprofits, building the Community Foundation’s assets to strengthen the local nonprofit sector and engaging you more in our community.

One theme will shape and direct our activities:
LOCAL FOCUS. BROAD IMPACT.

In other words, we are committed to making a meaningful difference right here. We want to improve the quality of life for all by addressing the issues that directly affect Mercer County and especially our capital city, Trenton.

Thank you for your partnership. We look forward to the year ahead.

SINCERELY,

JEFFREY M. VEGA
PRESIDENT & CEO

$10 MILLION INVESTED IN nonprofits

– DAN DODSON & MICHELLE EMERSON, SHOWN ABOVE WITH THEIR 3-YEAR-OLD SON DANIEL

ALEXANDER MICHAEL DODSON

"I started my fund to continue my work with social justice and the local causes that I find very meaningful."

– DAVID McALPIN

Reverend David McAlpin, founder of Habitat for Humanity of Trenton, cares deeply about the well-being of this community and its people.

"I grew up in Princeton, attended Princeton University and first felt a call to ministry here," he recalls. "I always felt a deep concern for people living in the town's Witherspoon neighborhood, and once I joined the staff of the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, I quickly became engaged in service to Trenton communities."

He first came to the Community Foundation in 1998, starting a donor-advised fund to simplify his giving.

Because of his deep interest in local causes, we suggested our Greater Mercer fund that focuses on the nonprofits doing the strongest work here. It's been a perfect fit.

McAlpin cherishes his relationships with local organizations, many of which he has supported for decades, including these four:

- Habitat for Humanity of Trenton, where he has been building homes for families in need since he helped found the organization in 1986 and then served as its President for 25 years
- Metamorphosis Ministries and the New Jersey Association on Correction, through which he has ministered to prisoners

- The Montgomery Friends of Open Space and the Stony Brook-Millstone Watershed Association (an organization McAlpin's father founded), which both speak to his personal passion for conserving NJ's environment
- Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church, where McAlpin served as Associate Pastor early in his career and began his ministry work with underserved communities in need

LOCAL COUNSEL HELPING YOU GIVE WISELY & WELL

Each day, we guide our donors through important decisions about where and how to give, and we make sure their money accomplishes the most it can—both today and into the future.

The Community Foundation provides:

- A deep understanding of community needs
- Unbiased, well-informed insights about local nonprofits
- Expert advice on how to handle complex, multigenerational gifting
- The guidance and administrative support you need to make your giving simple

"To give away money is an easy matter and in any man's power. But to decide to whom to give it, and how large and when, and for what purpose and how, is neither in every man's power nor an easy matter."

– ARISTOTLE

"The Community Foundation has won the trust of many and is superbly led. We are delighted to be a small part of its esprit."

– HELLA & SCOTT McVAY

LOCAL RELATIONSHIPS RISE

"We're thankful to the Community Foundation
for supporting our members toward healthy,
safe and
stable lives."

— LESLIE KOPPEL,
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, RISE

Teaching girls how to nurture healthy relationships, and avoid abusive ones, can improve the future for entire families and communities.

To help with that effort, our Fund for Women and Girls supports Safe Dates, an after-school program that equips middle-school girls to prevent and escape dating violence.

The program is run by RISE, the largest and oldest social service organization in Hightstown and East Windsor.

"Safe Dates provides the only 'safe place' for at-risk girls to talk with their peers and a caring adult," says Leslie Koppel, Executive Director of RISE, which has served this community for almost 50 years.

"We teach essential skills," says Koppel, "including how to bond with each other, build lasting relationships and ask for and give help. The girls then 'pay it forward' by showing their friends and parents what it means to have relationships based on trust and friendship."

Thanks to the support of the Fund for Women and Girls, RISE is also able to offer access to domestic violence counseling in the East Windsor, Hightstown and Twin Rivers schools.

LOCAL INVESTMENT GIVING WHERE IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

In 2014, the Community Foundation awarded over $1 million through its Greater Mercer Grants giving program, which supports local nonprofits in a variety of ways:

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC GRANTS

To fund specific programs that support low-income individuals and families

UNRESTRICTED SUPPORT

To help organizations invest in their infrastructure so they can better serve low-income individuals and families

COMMUNITY-BUILDING GRANTS

To support efforts that address a shared problem—or take advantage of a shared opportunity—among multiple municipalities or within a single borough, city or township in Mercer County

LOCAL IMPACT PROMOTING NONPROFIT EXCELLENCE

PATH TO IMPACT CAPACITY-BUILDING PROGRAM

We provide training and resources to help nonprofits work as effectively and efficiently as possible—and to increase their impact on our community. To that end, we launched the Path to Impact Capacity Building Program in 2014 to help nonprofits. Our approach is three-fold:

TRAINING SEMINARS

Our ongoing workshop series covers topics that are challenging for nonprofits—from skills like fundraising, board development and technology, to big-picture issues like leadership development and program evaluation.

PEER LEARNING GROUPS

Twice a year, we host peer learning groups composed of local nonprofits that closely examine specific topic areas. Nonprofit leaders meet together with a professional facilitator once a month for six months. Each participating organization leaves with a written plan of action.

CAPACITY BUILDING GRANTS

Participants in the Peer Learning Groups are eligible to receive capacity building grants that help them apply what they have learned to their organization.

PHILANTHROPY EDUCATION

We offer educational opportunities for everyone – annual seminars for the community, exclusive learning opportunities for our donors, and skills-based workshops taught by national thought leaders for nonprofits.

LOCAL SUCCESS YMCA OF TRENTON

When Samuel Frisby took on the position of CEO of the YMCA of Trenton—one of the oldest YMCAs in the United States—the organization was at an all-time low of just 300 members. It was fighting to keep the doors open.

“We were in pretty bad shape the first time I met with the Community Foundation,” says Frisby. “But they didn’t care. They just told me what I needed to do in order to get funded. They wanted us to be able to make an impact in the City of Trenton.”

Over the next two years, Frisby and his team worked hard, applying recommendations the Community Foundation provided—everything from cleaning up their audits to refocusing their vision. By fall of 2013, they had improved so significantly that the Community Foundation awarded them an unrestricted grant to continue growing their organization. The money helped them build their infrastructure and pursue—and win—additional grants.

Today the YMCA of Trenton has quadrupled its membership to 1,300, and it focuses on nurturing the potential of the most valuable community asset—our children—while promoting healthy living and fostering a strong sense of social responsibility.

“It’s been a pretty phenomenal ride over the last four years,” says Frisby, who is excited about what lies ahead for the YMCA of Trenton and about their ongoing partnership with the Community Foundation.

“The Community Foundation believed in us—and they also gave us the tools to make it happen.”

– SAMUEL FRISBY, CEO, YMCA OF TRENTON

AN IDEAL PARTNERSHIP

The Bunbury Company, a private foundation that will complete its dissolution in 2016, established a $15 million donor advised fund at the Community Foundation to continue its grantmaking legacy.

Dean Mathey created Bunbury to fund critical nonprofit work in our region and beyond. For decades, a dedicated group of trustees has followed his wishes.

Now the Bunbury Fund advisors can focus on Mathey’s first love—education and caring for this community—and we will take care of the Fund’s administration.
