INTRODUCING

THE BURKE FOUNDATION LEGACY GRANTS

This grant announcement is the result of the close partnership between the Princeton Area Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation. Both foundations have deep roots in the region, share the same values about responsible philanthropy, a commitment to the nonprofit agencies that serve our regional community, and give generously to address the needs of low-income individuals, families and communities in our local area.

This grant funding opportunity only requires one application, the same application, as submission for the Community Foundation’s Community Impact Grants and The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants. While The Burke Foundation will be actively involved in the selection of grantees, Community Foundation staff will manage all grant-making activities. Please direct all questions to the Community Foundation.

About the Community Foundation

The Princeton Area Community Foundation promotes giving as a shared community value—something we simply expect of ourselves and of others. This shared value connects us to each other and our work. It helps us all to thrive and grow stronger. We believe in sharing resources—money, ideas, talents, and time—and we encourage generosity within ourselves and from others. We help people and other organizations invest in outstanding local organizations—successful nonprofits that are making lives better across central New Jersey and beyond.

The Community Foundation embraces generosity, fairness, creativity, courage, and sustainability as the central framework of values for Community Impact Grants, and all our other work as follows:
Generosity: We believe in the sharing of resources and encourage this altruistic spirit in ourselves and others. We share more than money. We share our knowledge of the community, its needs, and the nonprofit organizations that provide vital services. This means that we will invest time in answering your questions before application deadlines and will provide grant information sessions that can be open to all nonprofits.

Fairness: We perform the work of our organization justly, openly, honestly, and strive for social justice. We consider each application on its own merits. We draw on the expertise of a group of board members and volunteers to help us make decisions in the best interest(s) of our communities. We manage potential conflicts of interest or the appearance of conflicts carefully so to evaluate each applicant on the merits of the proposal.

Creativity: We harness our collective intelligence, compassion, and empathy to ensure that our work is productive, constructive, and imaginative. We value creativity in our grantees. We encourage fresh thinking and new approaches that include evidence to support the approach and its likelihood of success.

Courage: We aspire to do the right thing for our organization and for our community, even when a decision may not be popular or universally understood. We encourage our grantees to be courageous whether it is trying a new programmatic or operational approach, or it is advocating for change and social justice solutions to root causes of social dysfunction or inequality.

Sustainability: Our organization will remain enduringly relevant. A key driver for remaining relevant is our desire to achieve significant impact and sustainable well-being in our regional community through the grants we make.

Grant-making is an essential tool, but only one way that the Community Foundation builds strong relationships with area nonprofits. We value partnerships in which we learn from each other, advocate for the nonprofit sector and shine a light on important issues that affect the people we serve. We embrace opportunities where we can combine efforts to improve life in our communities and address the needs of the people who live in them.

The high value we place on partnerships is evident in the relationship the Community Foundation has developed with The Burke Foundation, a Princeton-based private foundation that shares the same geographical footprint as we do, our values, and commitment to local nonprofits. Our focus areas and processes mesh well.

About The Burke Foundation

The mission of The Burke Foundation is to improve the health and well-being of underserved children. The Foundation invests in the most promising programs narrowing developmental, achievement, and health gaps in New Jersey. The Burke Foundation explores funding ideas and generates initiatives through research, long-term partnerships, and networking with community leaders. It is particularly interested in evidence-based programs that empower families and caregivers and communities working to equip children with the cognitive development, socio-emotional growth, long-term health outcomes, and core life skills needed to become healthy adults.

_The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants_ are made through this shared initiative in honor of the late James (Jim) Burke and his wife Diane (Didi), who established The Burke Foundation in 1989. Jim Burke, who spent 37 years with Johnson & Johnson and served as Chairman and CEO for the last 13 years of his tenure, was well known as a visionary corporate leader and philanthropist.

Grant Eligibility and Funding Guidelines

The Princeton Area Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation (jointly referred to as the Foundations) offer grants to organizations whose initiatives transform the lives of low-income individuals, families and communities across our regional footprint as follows:

- All of _Mercer County;_
- _Southern Middlesex County_, including Monroe, Plainsboro and Cranbury;
- _Southern Somerset County_, including Montgomery, Rocky Hill and adjacent sections of Franklin Township;
- _Southern Hunterdon County_, including Lambertville, West Amwell Township and the adjacent parts of East Amwell Township;
- _Northern Burlington County_, including Bordentown and Bordentown Township; and,
- _Eastern Bucks County, Pennsylvania_, including New Hope, Morrisville, Washington Crossing and Yardley.

GRANT ELIGIBILITY QUIZ

The _Community Impact and The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants_ will consider applications from nonprofits that answer “Yes” to all of the questions below.

- Does the nonprofit have tax-exempt status under the IRS Section 501(c)(3)?
- Is the nonprofit organization located in the Foundations’ footprint, as listed above or is a significant part of its service portfolio devoted to residents of the service area? _Before submitting a letter of intent, the Foundations strongly encourage a discussion with PACF staff._
- Is the nonprofit’s proposed activity focused on low-income individuals, families and communities in the Foundations’ footprint, as listed above?
• Is the nonprofit registered with the State of New Jersey or Pennsylvania as a charity? For organizations exempt from the provisions of the New Jersey Charitable Registration and Investigation Act or the Pennsylvania Solicitation of Funds for Charitable Purposes Act, is the organization a religious organization or a school district that files its curricula with the Department of Education? For more information on New Jersey Charitable Registration, go to the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs’ website at http://www.njconsumeraffairs.gov/ocp/charities.htm or Pennsylvania’s Department of State’s website at: http://www.dos.pa.gov/BusinessCharities/Charities/Resources/Pages/Information-for-Charitable-Organizations.aspx

If your organization answered “YES” to all questions, then your organization is eligible to apply. If you have any questions about your organization’s eligibility, contact Nelida Valentin, Community Foundation Vice President, Grants and Programs, at nvalentin@pacf.org or at (609) 219-1800.

Follow-Up Question: While the Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation believe that grantmaking is a powerful tool to support nonprofit organizations, we value deeply and above all the relationship building and collaborative process that may lead to meaningful impact in the community.

• My agency has received a grant from the Princeton Area Community Foundation or The Burke Foundation within the past three years.

If you answered “NO” to the above question, we may not know enough about each other. Your organization may not be aware of the Community Foundation’s current strategic plan and the changes affecting our grantmaking or the work and interests of The Burke Foundation. We may not know about your organization’s mission and initiatives. We recommend a conversation, so we can get to know each other. To schedule a conversation, contact Nelida Valentin, Community Foundation Vice President, Grants and Programs, nvalentin@pacf.org or (609) 219-1800. Please do not contact The Burke Foundation for this grantmaking program. You certainly should attend one of the mandatory joint grant information sessions. Scheduled grant information sessions are on the Community Foundation website at www.pacf.org.

2019 FUNDING GUIDELINES

For consideration for the Community Impact and The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants, an applicant may request program or operating support, for up to $50,000. Both Foundations will consider requests within two categories of community impact: The Basic Needs of Low-income Individuals and Families, and The Needs of Low-income Neighborhoods and Communities. We encourage a wide range of initiatives that improve the quality of life, such as affordable housing, economic/community development or arts initiatives as well as programs that enhance the cognitive and social-emotional development of children and adolescents.
There will be one Community Impact and Burke Foundation Legacy Grants cycle in 2019.

The Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation seek collaborations within the funding community. If, for whatever reason, your proposal meets our guidelines, is of high quality, and addresses a significant need, but not funded by either The Burke Foundation or the Community Foundation, we may seek support from a collaborating foundation, corporation, or individual donor. There is no guarantee, but we will continue to inspire greater collaboration among funders and donors.

Applying to other Community Foundation Funding Sources

Applying for funding under the Community Impact Grants/The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants does not preclude your organization from submitting applications for support. from The Bunbury Fund, the Fund for Women and Girls, or other grants programs offered by The Burke Foundation or the Princeton Area Community Foundation.

Non-Discrimination

The Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation support programs and organizations that promote inclusiveness and that do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability, or any other characteristics protected by law.

Assistance with Preparing Applications

The Community Foundation and The Burke Foundation require applicants to attend Grant Information Sessions at the Community Foundation’s office, located at 15 Princess Road, Lawrenceville, New Jersey. These sessions provide an opportunity to ask questions. Check the Community Foundation website event page for dates and registration. Grant information sessions are mandatory.

Follow-up Questions and Site Visits

During the review process, the Community Foundation may contact your organization to request information or to schedule a site visit with staff and/or your Board of Trustees.

How Grants Are Announced

The Community Foundation first notifies all applicants of its decision by regular or electronic mail, and then posts a full listing on its website. Grantees are encouraged to publicize their awards themselves through press releases, social media, newsletters, web sites, and annual reports, and to acknowledge the support of either the Community Foundation or The Burke Foundation. For assistance or advice on acknowledging grants from either source, please contact Michelle Sahn, Director of Communications, at msahn@pacf.org or at (609) 219-1800.

Use of Grant Funds

Grant money must be used exclusively for the purposes and activities specified in the grant application. Grantees may be required to return grant funds not used in the manner described in their grant proposal. Grantees should notify the Community Foundation as soon as possible if their needs or circumstances change.

Reporting Requirements

Grantees are required to submit brief six-month and end-of-grant reports, including financial reports and all project evaluation data, lessons learned, changes that will be made in similar future endeavors, and unintended consequences, if any. Report forms are available on the Community Foundation’s grant portal. Failure to complete and submit reports on deadline will render an applicant ineligible to apply for future funding from either the Community Foundation or The Burke Foundation. The Foundations may ask a Grantee(s) to present a status report in person during and/or after the completion of the grant year.

APPLICATION PROCESS

The application process outlined below applies to both the Community Foundation’s Community Impact Grants and The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants. Do not submit separate applications or request consideration by one or both funders. Both Foundations will jointly consider each application. Submit any questions about either funding program only to the Community Foundation.

This grant funding will entail a two-phase application process as follows:
(1) Submission and Review of a Letter of Intent (LOI) or Inquiry and
(2) Submission and Review of a Full Proposal.

The LOI is a brief summary of the proposed project or program. It should be prepared after careful consideration of the project goals, resource requirements, budget, and the grant guidelines. The LOI will enable the Foundations to assess whether there is a good match between their interests and the proposed project. If the match appears to be strong, we will request a full proposal. The goal is to make the best use of agency resources by reducing the time spent on preparing proposals. This process creates efficiencies for both the applicant and funders(s), particularly when proposed initiatives are not likely to receive funding by either Foundation, for a variety of reasons.

Below is an outline of steps for each phase of this application. Agencies should first complete the eligibility quiz provided above. If the answers to all questions are “Yes”, the agency should decide whether it meets the 2019 Guidelines for program or operational support.

PHASE 1. THE LETTER OF INTENT. Organizations interested in applying for either program or operational support must first submit a Letter of Intent (LOI).

We suggest that you draft your Letter of Intent as a coherent statement and then complete the application in Foundant, the Community Foundation’s on-line grant application system. Think of the LOI as a two-page, single-spaced letter. The LOI should follow the following outline:

1. Summary Statement. Include information about the applicant and what you want to do; the amount requested; the duration of the project; and whether the project is part of a larger initiative, and, if so, the nature of that initiative.

2. Statement of Need. In one or two paragraphs, explain the issue you are addressing and why you have chosen to respond to this set of issues in the way that you have. Why is the project important in the Foundations’ service area; who will benefit and how?
3. Project Activity. Provide a concise overview of the activities involved. What is the evidence that the proposed approach will result in the intended outcomes? Outline the major details to the degree that space allows. Indicate why your approach is novel or otherwise deserving of funding. If your agency is part of a collaboration, identify your partners, their roles, and the resources they will provide.

4. Outcomes. State the outcomes you seek to achieve. Outline the role of evaluation in the project. Indicate how you will determine your success in achieving the outcomes.

5. Credentials. Explain why your agency and its staff are qualified to carry out the project successfully. What sets your agency apart from others doing similar work?

6. Budget. Provide a general description of funding needs, other actual or likely sources of revenue, and total amount of the request.

7. Other Information. Briefly provide critical information that does not fit elsewhere.

The Foundations will review all LOIs and invite applicants who meet the grant guidelines and make a strong case for the proposed initiative to submit a full proposal for funding.

PHASE 2. SUBMISSION OF FULL PROPOSALS. All applicants submitting promising Letters of Intent will be asked to submit a fuller application that address the elements included in the Letter of Intent. The invitation for a full proposal will include specific guidelines.

PHASE 3. GRANT AWARDS. Approximately $500,000 is available to fund Community Impact Grants or The Burke Foundation Legacy Grants in 2019. This will be a single-grant cycle.

Successful grantees may receive a one-year grant of up to $50,000. Funding in one year is not a guarantee of funding in subsequent years.
